

Interested in a teaching role in China?

Are you a recent CELTA graduate or a more experienced EFL teacher looking for an opportunity to work in China for a year? Newcastle College is working in partnership with a number of highly respected high schools in China who are recruiting now for a variety of teaching posts.

What's in it for me?

- Training and/or induction provided before you travel
- Ongoing training & support
- Opportunity to learn basic Chinese
- Will enhance your CV & further your career prospects
- For interns, an opportunity to complete an internationally-recognised CELTA qualification

Who are the posts suitable for?

There are three types of teaching roles available:

- English language teachers with CELTA qualifications
- Subject teachers of physics, maths and business studies,
- Teaching interns who will receive training before travel

Terms & Conditions

- Fixed term contract from Aug 2011 – July 2012
- Good local salary with bonus payable on completion
- Accommodation / meals provided
- Flights, visas & insurance arranged for you

To find out more about these opportunities, contact Lianne Abraham lianne.abraham@ncl-coll.ac.uk or call 0191 200 4565